Autobiography More about this story Begun in 1950 and eventually completed in 1965, Agatha Christie recounts her life from early childhood until the end of the memoir's composition. The book came about from her reluctance to let others tell her story, as she explained to her agent Edmund Cork of Hughes Massie.

Autobiography by Agatha Christie

Agatha Christie's autobiography is an engrossing journey into the mind of an original and entertaining woman. Its little forays into Victoriana, such as the proper books for children to read, or suitable names for cooks, house maids and parlourmaids, (and why they weren't the same), are charming and fascinating.
