BY THE VILLAGE SUN | The souped-up car is the super's. Some people have been wondering about this Maserati and how it can constantly stay parked in a designated pickup / drop-off zone on E. 12th Street. Specifically, Choresch Wald, an avid cyclist who assiduously documents all the blocked bike lanes in the East Village — and there are a ton — has flagged the Italian luxury car in his tweets ...

The 12th Street Riot began in the early morning hours of Sunday, July 23, 1967. The Detroit Police Department at the time was 93% white, of whom 45% working in black neighborhoods were considered to be "extremely anti-Negro" and an additional 34% were "prejudiced". The riot began after police raided a black-owned business that hosted a "blind pig" (illegal bar), during a party to celebrate the ...
