When young children interact in person, they pick up communication cues from sight, sound, smell, and touch. Since video chat only involves sight and sound, help your child to concentrate on those senses. Repeat questions raised by her far away friend or family member or point out things your child can see and identify.

- Neil Young. For six decades now, Neil Young has defied all musical standards and stood as both an oddity in the industry and a simultaneous tenet of both rock 'n' roll and folk. "Give a hippie too much money," he says, "and anything can happen." Young is living proof of that pithy little soundbite.
