Mar 05, 202 0 by Dr. Robert N. Minor in bible study. According to what we're told in the Hebrew Bible (the Christian "Old Testament"), Jonathan, a king's son, loved a man who would become a more famous king, David – and David in turn loved Jonathan. No matter what the actual history behind the story, what we're presented with in the Bible is a tale of two manly military heroes who participated in a loving same-sex relationship.
